

Elio Schiavo Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

Elio Schiavo (47) is Chief Executive Officer of telegate AG, with effect from December 1, 2011.

Within the two-member management board he is responsible for all business operations as well as the strategic development of the Directory Assistance and Media business segments.

Elio Schiavo has a deep knowledge of the European media and Internet market. As CEO of Thomson Directories Limited, London, since 2009, he realigned the media strategy, the Internet services as well as the organisation of media sales with the UK local search specialist, repositioned the brand thomsonlocal.com, and promoted alliances with other media and partners.

Previous assignments in Elio Schiavo's career include, among others, the multi media local search provider Katalog A. S., located in Istanbul, and the market-leading Italian direct marketing company Consodata S. p. A., Rome, where he both acted as CEO. Furthermore he also held the position of Seat Group Business Development Director.
